Facebook post - My daddy told me this years and years ago when I was a young girl Just before Easter, pine trees start their new growth. The tallest branch shoots forth, & it forms the shape of a cross. And it all happens just around Easter Sunday. Look up at the Pine trees, you will see the tree is covered with crosses.

Judas ate too

Hours before the death of Jesus, Judas ate too.

Jesus fed Judas too.

Jesus prayed for Judas too.

Jesus washed Judas' feet too.

I struggle to fathom what kind of love this is ...

A love that would feed the mouth that deceived you.

A love that would wash the feet of the traitor.

A love that could forgive even the vilest of betrayals.

Honestly I struggle to comprehend it.

And then, suddenly, I realize.. that I'm Judas too!

And in that moment, I'm so thankful & altogether overwhelmed that, Judas ate too.

The true test of Christianity is not about loving Jesus

but loving Judas.

Showing love to someone like Jesus is so easy,

But loving someone hard to love,

a sinner like Judas is difficult

That's what 'following Jesus' is all about.

Almighty and everlasting God,
You sent Your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon Himself our flesh and
to suffer death upon the cross.
Mercifully grant that we may follow
the example of His great humility & patience and be made partakers of His resurrection;
through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

LCMS Lectionary Summaries

The Son of David Ascends His Throne and Reigns in Love from His Cross

The Son of David comes in gentle humility, “sitting on a donkey’s colt,” yet as the King of Israel “in the name of the Lord” (John 12:13–15). He comes to be lifted up in glory on the cross in order to cast out “the ruler of this world” and draw all people to Himself (John 12:23–32). The Church is thus called to “rejoice greatly,” because her King comes with salvation, and “he shall speak peace to the nations” (Zech. 9:9–10). As He is anointed “beforehand for burial” (Mark 14:8), He also ascends His royal throne as “the King of the Jews” by way of His Passion (Mark 15:2, 17–19, 26). He goes “as it is written of him,” wherefore “you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power” (Mark 14:21, 62). For the glory of God is love, which crescendos in the humble obedience and voluntary self-sacrifice of the Son of God for the salvation of sinners. So, God the Father has “highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name” (Phil. 2:9), that He might reign over us in love with the forgiveness of His cross.

Gradual Hebrews 9:12a, c, 15a; Psalm 111:9a

[Christ] entered once for all into the holy places, by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance. He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever.

Verse Philippians 2:8b

He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

All Glory, Laud, and Honor

John 12:12-19: Palm Sunday GOSPEL NOTE <https://www.lutheranchurchcanada.ca/>
Hosanna, save us now! Our cry for help is the same as those on the first Palm Sunday. Our Lord has not only heard our cries, but has answered them with His perfect life, sacrificial death, and victorious resurrection. As ones who have already been saved by Christ’s life and death, we have the opportunity to share that very same saving rescue with others in our daily lives..

Prayer for a Celebration of Holy Week

Jesus, Our Redeemer and Lord,

Enter into my mind and heart as Holy Week unfolds and open me to the grace of this sacred time.

Through its symbols and stories, awaken in me an awareness of your great sacrifice, made so generously on our behalf.

As I gather with other members of my parish family, fill me with humility, gratitude, and reverence.

From the solemn celebration of Palm Sunday to the opening of the Triduum on Holy Thursday, may my focus remain on you.

As I listen once again to the agonizing story of your Passion, death, & burial, may I learn what it means to say, “your will be done.”

And, throughout the quiet space of Holy Saturday, may I await, dormant and expectant, for your rising to new life as Easter dawns.

I ask this in your holy and blessed name. Amen.

NO TOMB TO VISIT (Pulpit Helps)

In one of the villages of Northern India a missionary was preaching in a bazaar. As he closed, a Muslim gentleman came up and said, “You must admit we have one thing you have not, and it is better than anything you have.”

The missionary smiled and said, “I should be pleased to hear what it is.”

The Muslim said, “You know when we go to Mecca we at least find a coffin. But when you Christians go to Jerusalem, which is your Mecca, you find nothing but an empty grave.”

But the missionary smiled and said, “That is just the difference. Mohammed is dead; Mohammed is in the coffin. And false systems of religion and philosophy are in their coffins, but Jesus Christ, whose kingdom is to include all nations and kindreds and tribes, is not here; He is risen. And all power in heaven and on earth is given unto Him. That is our hope.”

A living Christ! That is our hope. He is not dead, but alive forevermore.
